

Worksheet n°11

(The questions follow the order of the report)

http://www.cbsnews.com/sections/i_video/main500251.shtml?id=2735464n

Starters.

1. What symptoms did Angela suffer from? _____

Main course.

2. The disease.

What was Angela diagnosed with? _____

What type of disease is it? _____

What is one of its main characteristics? _____

What are the principal symptoms? _____

3. The study.

Patients: _____

Years: _____

Change in ratio:

4. What are the hypotheses to explain this difference? _____

5. What exam has improved the diagnosis of the disease? _____

6. In the past, what was the difference of treatment between men and women?

7. What factors are evoked to account for the fact that women are more affected than men?

Dessert.

Now write an account of this TV report, using the pieces of information from the worksheet above.

Topping.

The stakes!

What are the treatments available for this disease? What is the management of patients?